EASTERN KENTUCKY STATE COLLEGE

THE MILESTONE

1954

FOREWORD

We're going to forget many of the things that made our college days worth while; we'll lose some of the eagerness and enthusiasm we now have and even a few of our cherished memories will be lost in the future years.

It is the job of the MILESTONE to keep those memories living. Its purpose is to record the year's activities in such a way that the turn of each page will lead us back over the old paths, cause to relive old experiences, renew old friendships, and in some small way, recapture the moments that are gone.

Let Eastern, through the coming years as in the past, progress and expand beyond recognition. All of us will glory in it. And now with the turn of these pages we can catch a glimpse of the Eastern we knew.

To all those who contributed, directly or indirectly, to the completion of this yearbook — I am sincerely grateful.

To my staff, Thanks,

B. R. M.

"When the Great Recorder comes

To score against your name,

It isn't if you won
or lost,

But how you played the game."

Tom Samuels

We, the senior class of 1954, dedicate this our annual to Mr. Tom Samuels, former football coach and instructor at Eastern. As our class sponsor and as a friend, he was helpful and ambitious for us at all times. We wish him continued success and happiness in his new work.

LIFE AT EASTERN

... first and last impressions

The year 1953-54 will be remembered by everyone in a different way ... there are those who have just finished their first year at Eastern, and we hope it has been everything they had expected. Others will be leaving the campus never to return again as students, and to them we hope that Eastern will forever be a part of their most cherished memories. To you, freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior we offer the following pages that you may never forget ...

... LIFE AT EASTERN.

. . . and so we came

. . . from all parts of the state, and before we had time to get settled we found ourselves in line after line after line, etc.

Suitcasers? No, but give 'em time.

Where do we go from here?

Wheww! This is the end of the line -- registration, that is!

. . . for the freshmen

"Sure, this is a Tea! Coffee or punch, please?"

. . . there were many new activities. The get-acquainted tea, which initiates many new friendships and renews old ones. The Big Sisters, your "mother away from home", always lend a helping hand for any freshman girl. The YWCA - YMCA sponsors the freshmen talent show as a preview to Eastern's future stars.

Remember these Big Sisters? They offered many a shoulder to cry on.

No more encores, please!

. . . and fall began

Halloween jam session—and all the "cats" were there.

. . . with parties, weiner roasts, hay rides, outings, initiations and installations.

"Step on it, quick, I think it's alive."

A Dragnet line-up, maybe? No, just Burnams' House Council.

. . . then boy meets girl

Huggin' and Chalking

It's a sure thing!

This is no time for jokes!

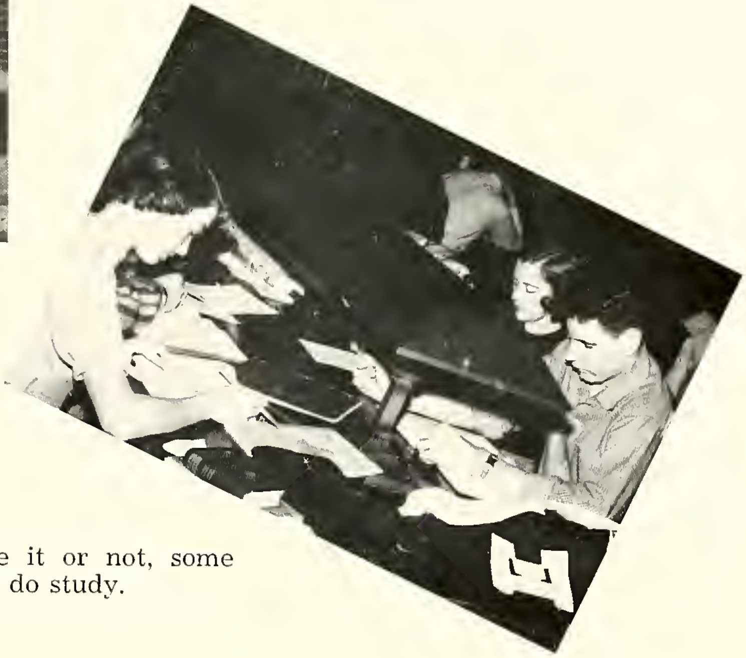
"So I sez to her" . . .

"and we can live in Vet's Village."

. . . our campus at night

"Naughty! Naughty!"

. . . finds many on dates, some at meetings, others in the dorm, and a few even in the library.



Believe it or not, some people do study.

Just a friendly game of bridge?

And then there are serious moments.

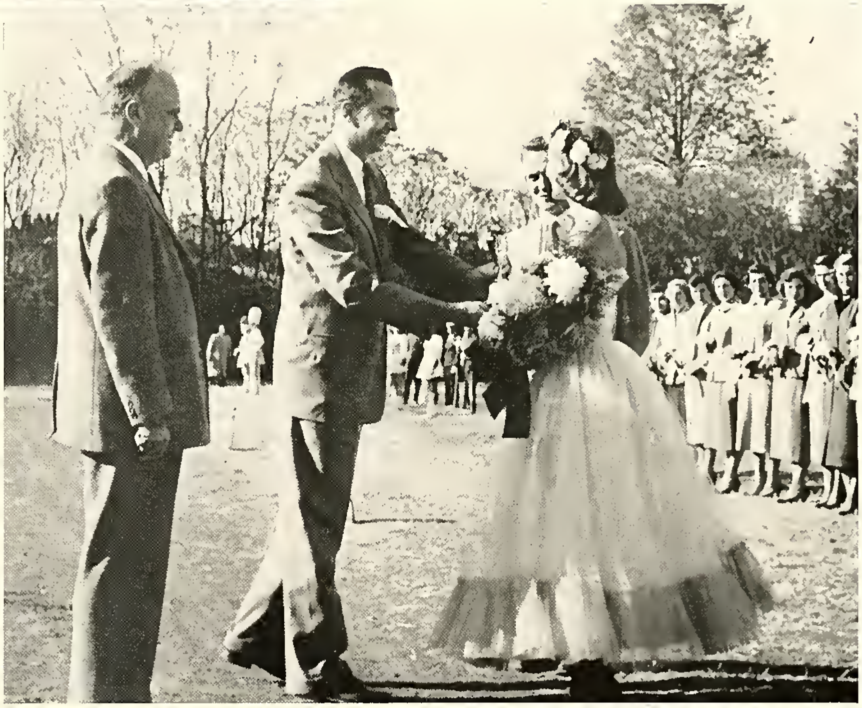
. . . homecoming

"More napkins! More chicken wire! More . . .," how many times is this heard during the few days before THE BIG DAY. It's hard work, but lots of fun.

Another of the many activities of this great week-end is the barbecue, served by the faculty.

The big Maroon takes to the field. Target for the day—Western!

The big night finds everyone at the dance. Sponsored by the Alumni, this is one of THE dances of the year at Eastern.



"I crown thee, Carlene Babb, Homecoming Queen of 1953."

Mission complete! Eastern—13, Western—7.

. . . the Queen and her Court

That great day was here at last. Beautiful girls, pretty floats and a sunny autumn day made up our Homecoming. This year the R.O.T.C. had the winning float. There were forty units entered in the parade.

A good reason for suitcasing—Thanksgiving.

The Winnahs! Carolyn and Ozzie were selected "best dressed" at the fabulous Sadie Hawkins Dance sponsored by KYMA.

Sigma Tau Pi initiation—or—just before the war dance.

The Little Theatre Club, provides top entertainment throughout the year with their many performances. This is a scene from "Our Town".

...autumn leaves

Walkin' my baby

. . . begin to cover the campus, and Eastern's students hurry to take advantage of those last beautiful days before Old Man Winter comes along.

A little serious indulgence.

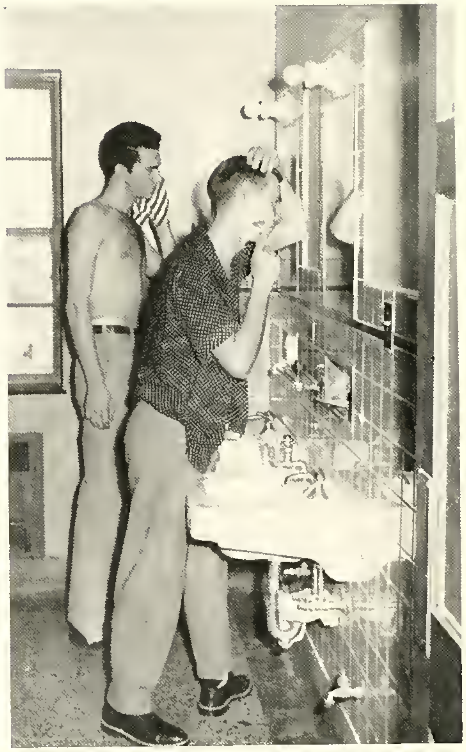
Last minute craming, no doubt.

And so to class (sleep) again.

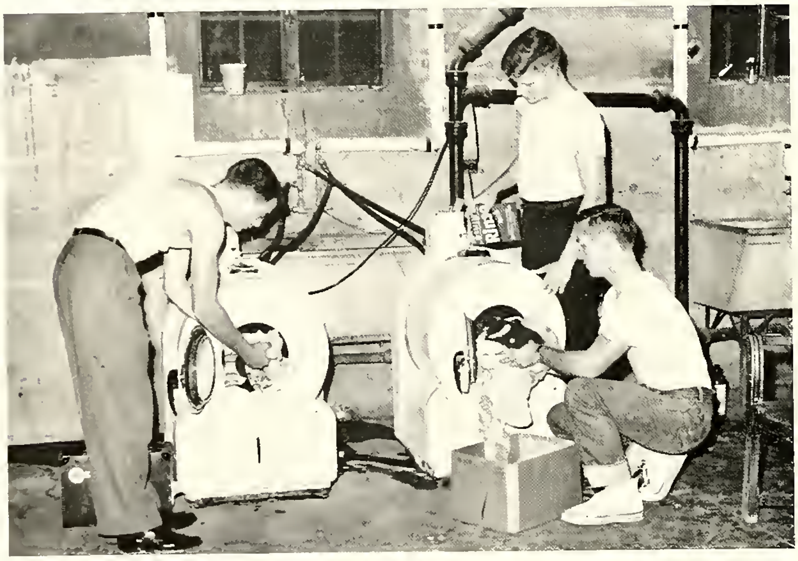
. . . Beckham? Sullivan?

Eastern's five dorms for men are always humming with activity. Proof is positive, so here is proof . . .

From the looks of the expressions, the conversation could be "wimmen."



Lifting the 5 o'clock shadow before a heavy date.



DUZ does everything, but they're using Rinso.

Playing possum, huh?

. . . Burnam? Stateland?

Signing in, parties in the room, fire drills . . . all are a part of the dormitory world. However, "hen" sessions, impromptu costume parties, pranks played, keeping quiet after midnight, peanut butter and crackers at 3 a. m. . . . are a part of a spirit of fellowship and fun that no photograph could capture.

Tests, so soon?

"Mirror, mirror on the wall who's the fairest of them all?"

"Town card, please."

"Let's stop this and go to the grille!"

"And I was in the bathtub . . ."

. . . a white Eastern

Remember the first snow? Eastern's beauty was reflected in a wonderland of snow-covered trees and bushes.

Snow also brings out mischievous spirits of students who are never too old to snowball fight or go sleigh-riding.

. . . Christmas Cheer

TWAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Santa baby, I've been so-o-o-o good.

Cedar and tinsel all over the room, but gee, what fun those little parties were.

. . . captures the campus with a spirit of happiness and good will toward all. Traditional activities of decorating the lobby and dorm doors are an integral part of Christmas festivities. Many organizations, such as the Home Ec Club, spread joy at Christmas parties.

"Nita, did you burn the rolls?"

. . . Yuletide traditions

"Hark the Herald Angels Sing"

Hope this rope doesn't break!

. . . are among the most impressive memories of the Christmas holidays. The "Y"-sponsored Hanging of the Greens will always hold a treasured spot in our recollections at Eastern. Handel's immortal "Messiah" will always leave us spellbound after each performance. Such events as these help us to grow toward appreciation of the true meaning of Christmas.

Hal-le-lu-jah!

. . . grill time

What number course is this?

Pool time, card time.

"Well, see, we were sitting in class, and the professor says . . ."

"Letters, papers, notices —anything so I can open that box!"

. . . campus capers

Hot off the press! the Progress is always eagerly awaited by enthusiastic readers.

. . . include everything from the campus mascot to the Dean of Women.

President Mozart heads "Who's Who Among Dogs on Campus."

"Shake it, break it, hang it on the wall . . ."

Out of your territory, hey girls?

Art for Art's sake?

. . . takes in Art, Chemistry, Science and Home Economics. "Learning to do by doing" could well be the motto of these classes.

And he thought he had nine lives.

Data—calculations—conclusions.

A stitch in time saves nine.

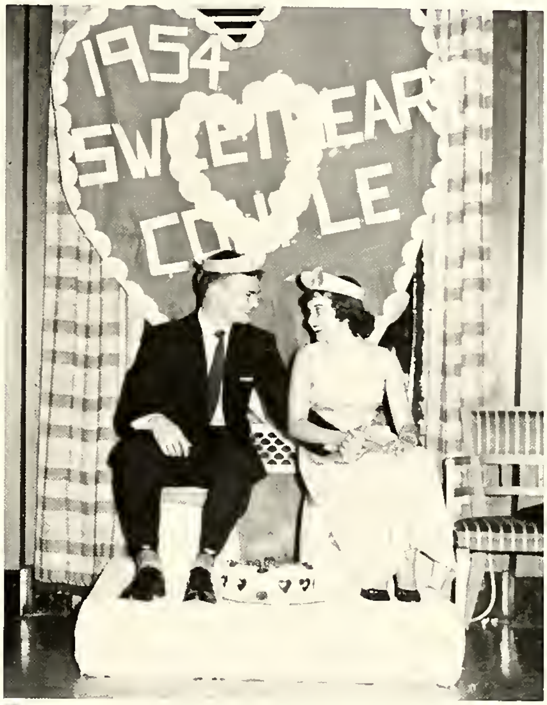
. . . Vet's Village

. . . provides adequate housing facilities and low rates for our married students. The village is organized like a regular community, with a mayor, council, and various women's clubs.

Couples prove that married life can be fun in two rooms and a half.

. . . the sweetheart dance

. . . sponsored by the Eastern Progress, was a semiformal affair held in Walnut Hall.



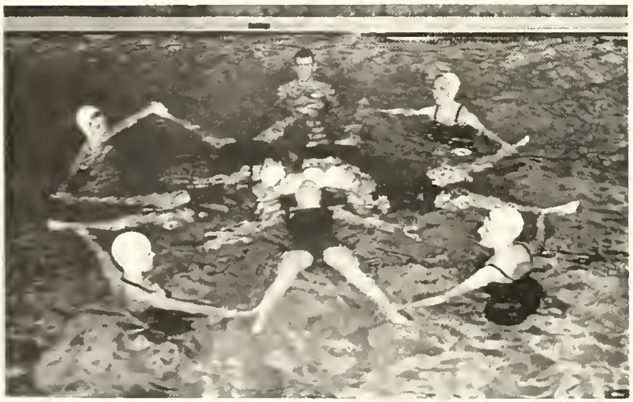
Highlight of the dance was the crowning of Carolyn Crace and Bob Zweigart as 1954's "Sweetest Sweetheart Couple."

The Sweetheart Dance is rapidly becoming a campus tradition.

. . . the time has come

. . . for the Music Club's presentation. This year Gilbert and Sullivan's MIKADO was the musical hit.

. . . for the modern Dance Club to prance and leap in their spring program presented in Hiram Brock.



. . . for mermaids and mermen to splash about in SCHOOL DAZE.

. . . for the female contingent to get their just reward for work well done on Honor's Day.

... what it wuz, wuz basketball

Friends, this wuz our team. It wuz. I went to all the ceremonies, and ever time I sat down they stood up. But Friend, what it is that I would like to know is what them men in the midst of the skatin' rink was about.

And then they put flowers on a pretty girl's head (Dean Rubarts), but they didn't play no games. She was the basketball queen, but I didn't see no baskets.

All them people a screechin' and a hollerin'! I never seen the like and I never hope to. Some buddy told me they had school spirits, but I never seen a single jug. I didn't.

I believe I will have another big orange drank! Odd man ye fer it!

...unsung heroes

Just sittin' back and takin' a noon hour easy.

Dishing out food at Eastern's own Campus Cafe. (Cafeteria to our public).

Listening for orders from headquarters or a ring from a phone.

Ministering to the sick and wounded (or fixing a sore toe).

. . . spring's sprung

Looks like an informal meeting of the Woochie gang.

Sure sign of Spring.

"Let's lunch on Burnam Beach."

"Why do we have to have classes in the Spring?"

"Mary Lake, shall it be class or the grill?"

Spring comes to Eastern and students migrate to beaches, to the outdoors, and all points heading off campus.

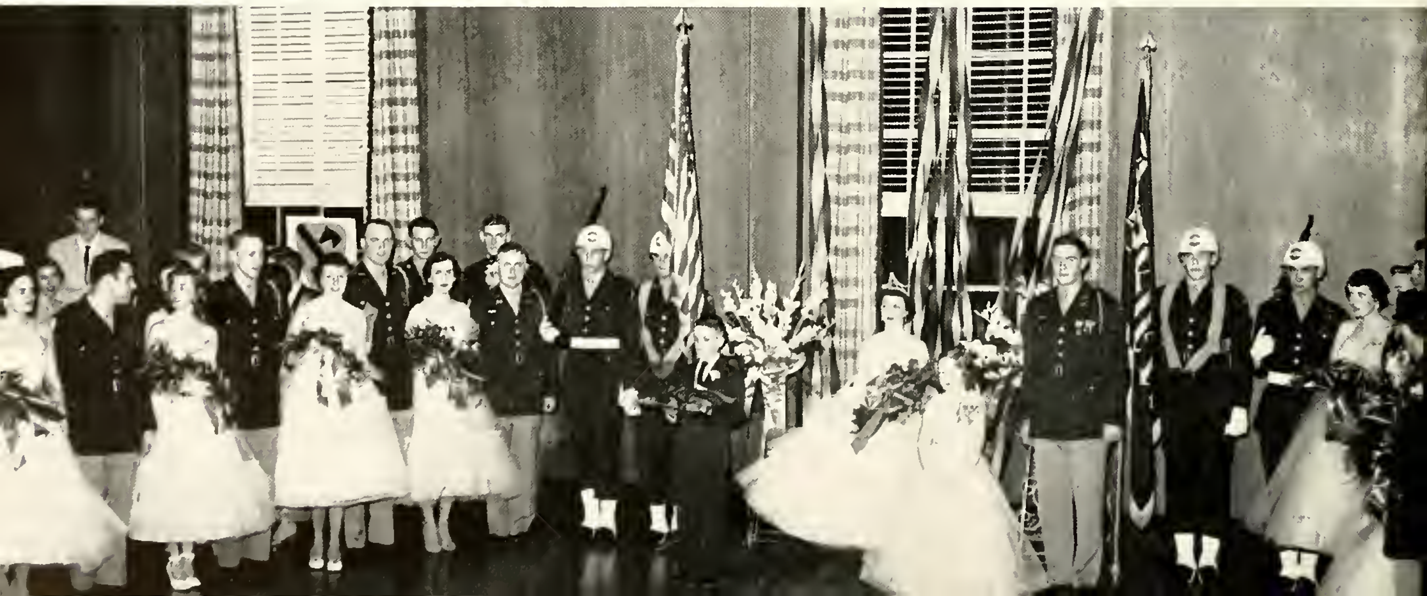
Anything to be outdoors.

Don't let anybody scratch off!

. . . Military Ball

You'd better have your ticket.

Queen Blanche Rose McCoun reigned over the Military Ball, Eastern's biggest social event. Sponsored by the R.O.T.C. Dave Parry's orchestra furnished music for the dance.



. . . in the spring

. . . other things do happen besides the changing of a young man's fancy. Spring and the beach are synonymous at Eastern, but the Junior Prom highlights the activities.

One of Eastern's musical organizations, which play for many of the dances during the year.

1953's Junior Prom Royalty—
King Clyde White and Queen
Blanche Rose McCoun.

These boys and gals were on hand at all special occasions to see us to our seats in Hiram Brock.

. . . R.O.T.C. Graduation

Sponsors, brass, and soldiers all are in review on R.O.T.C. graduation night. Honors are awarded to those superior officers and batteries.

Wives, mothers, and sweethearts take their part in the ceremony as they pin those coveted bars on that special fellow's shoulder.

. . . the end or the beginning?

Yes, the end of your life on Eastern's campus, but the beginning of a new life in an ever-changing world. May the experiences and acquaintances found here prepare you for a rich and useful future.

The Eastern footballers got off to a flying start in the 1953 season, winning the first three games before tasting defeat.

They edged John Carroll 20-19 in the opening game at Cleveland on September 19 then returned home to dispose of conference foe Middle Tennessee 15-6, in the home opener on September 26.

One week later the Maroons traveled to Murray and brought back a 19-14 victory, their first over the Thoroughbreds in four years.

Eastern's rushing attack against Tennessee Tech was stopped and resulted in first defeat of the season by a 7-0 count.

Youngstown College took a one point 20-19 decision on October 16 after the Maroons failed on two of three extra point attempts, but this proved to be the final loss of the season as the Eastern lads went on to chalk up five consecutive victories.

They had little trouble in downing Morehead 25-7 before a "Dad's Day" crowd in Hanger Stadium to keep possession of the coveted "Hawg Rifle", a relic for which these two teams battle annually.

They had another easy time writing victory No. 5 in the books on October 31, romping over Evansville 59-9 before a homecoming crowd at Evansville.

Eastern's own homecoming crowd was delighted a week later, on November 7,

Glenn Presnell attended the University of Nebraska where he was an All-American halfback in 1927. He played professional football from 1928 to 1936 before returning to Nebraska as backfield coach from 1938 through 1941. The following year he was named head coach at that university. In 1943, '44, and '45, "Press" served as an officer in the Navy. He came to Eastern in the fall of 1947 and since that time has made many friends in the Blue Grass.

Fred Darling played three years of football at Eastern where he was chosen as honorable mention on the Little All-American team. He was also selected as first string tackle on the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference squad for three years. Fred has been line coach at Eastern since 1947.

when the Maroons stopped their arch rivals, the Western Hilltoppers, by a 13-7 score, to avenge the defeat suffered at Bowling Green last year.

The Maroons were also seeking revenge when they moved into Louisville the following week and came out on top against the Louisville Cardinals 20-13.

Eastern's impressive 30-26 win over Stetson University at Deland, Florida, on November 28 completed the best season for the Maroon gridders in years.

The Eastern Kentucky State College basketball team since 1946 has made a steady climb from nowhere to national prominence. During this period, the Maroons have consistently ranked among the top 50 teams of the nation, and sports writers and rival coaches credit their remarkable success to the man who directs them. A master strategist, strict disciplinarian, a basketball fundamentalist with seemingly unlimited knowledge of the game, is Maroon Coach Paul McBrayer.

A native of Lawrenceburg, Anderson County, Kentucky, Coach McBrayer attended the University of Kentucky where he starred in basketball and baseball, and was named on the All-American basketball team in 1930. After graduation he coached at Morton Junior High in Lexington and at Kavanaugh High in Lawrenceburg before returning to Kentucky as assistant coach. He remained at the University for nine years, until called into the service in 1943, and after serving two and a half years, came to Eastern.

His building program at Eastern is evidenced by the record his teams have established since he took over as basketball coach in November, 1946. That fall, he took a group of unheralded freshmen and brought them through the season with 21 wins and only 4 losses against a schedule of "big name" schools. It took only two more years for his Maroons to enter the select group classified by the N.C.A.A. as "major" college basketball teams and they have competed with remarkable success on a major scale, winning 125 games and losing only 65 in the eight-year period.

Many observers are amazed at this record because it is a well-known fact that McBrayer never has any of the game's greats on his squad. However, it is also a well-known fact that the veteran coach is a master of the game, a basketball fundamentalist with a genius for developing his players into fundamentally sound teams. As one sports writer put it, "His intimate understanding of basketball is credited by rival coaches as the basic reason behind the success of Eastern which has never been blessed with all-around, great material since McBrayer took over in 1946."

It is no accident when one of his teams stages a so-called "upset" over a favorite. As one of his assistants stated on such an occasion, "It didn't just happen—it was planned that way."

*K.I.T.

The Eastern cagers were faced with a tremendous rebuilding job this year after the loss of all five regulars and the two front line reserves from last year's team that won the Ohio Valley Conference championship and went on to the N.C.A.A. Tournament. With only two returning lettermen, seniors Tom Holbrook and Bob Mulcahy, their hopes were further dimmed when Mulcahy, who was averaging 20 points a game, suffered a severe attack of influenza after the fifth game of the season and before fully recovering had a second attack which robbed the Maroons of a great scoring threat. It was not until the last game of the season, on March 3, that Mulcahy was able to return to form.

Tom Holbrook, however, throughout the season, thrilled the fans with his brilliant shooting performances and his uncanny accuracy on his one-hand jump shot. Against Tennessee Tech on December 8 he hit 12 out of 16 shots; against Western in the K.I.T., 11 out of 22; against Xavier in the K.I.T., 12 out of 22; against Western at Bowling Green, 10 out of 21; against Middle Tennessee at Murfreesboro, 15 out of 23; and for the entire year hit at a near 50% clip, averaging 18 points a game.

Holbrook and a group of young, inexperienced freshmen and sophomores carried the load for the Maroons and were able to register only 7 wins against 16 losses, but endeared themselves to the hearts of the fans by maintaining a terrific spirit and 100% effort throughout the season in the face of great odds. Promises for the future, however, were uncovered in the persons of sophomores Jack Adams and Ronnie Pellegrinon, and a couple of freshmen, Jimmy Mitchell and J. D. Brock, were in the starting lineup before the end of the year. Roy Allison, a senior, broke into the starting lineup before the season ended, but will be lost through graduation along with Holbrook and Mulcahy.

The caliber of competition met by the Maroons during the 1953-54 season was probably the toughest ever encountered by an Eastern squad. Three of their opponents competed in the National Invitation Tournament and two in the N.C.A.A. Tournament, and practically every team on the schedule was stronger than ever before, but the Eastern lads turned in some terrific performances in their first losing campaign.

The Maroons played before 95,000 fans in their 23 games and, as always, sports writers and rival coaches heaped rounds of praise on Coach Paul McBrayer for another magnificent coaching job. Already recognized as a master tactician of the game with the ability to accomplish more with less material than any other coach today, he proved it again this season. This was clearly evidenced on February 6 when his young charges handed the greatest Western team of all time its first loss of the season, 63-54. Only two other teams in the country, N.I.T. Champion Holy Cross, and Niagara, were able to perform the feat. Eastern earlier held the Hilltoppers to a 3-point 78-81 victory in the Kentucky Invitational Tournament at Louisville.

The Maroons' performance against the Quantico Marines, an aggregation of All-Americans headed by Paul Arizin and Richie Regan, was another highlight of the season. The Marines won, 96-89, in a down-to-the-wire finish.

Final statistics released by the N.C.A.A. show the Maroons in 12th place in the nation among major colleges in field goal percentage shooting with a mark of 40.2%, and 24th place in offense with an average of 76.7 points per game. Eastern scored a total of 660 field goals as compared to the opponents' 591. They got only 720 chances at the free throw line, however, compared to 996 for the opposition. Eastern converted 444 times, the opponents 672. They shaded the opponents in rebounds, averaging 44 a game against 40.

The Maroons advanced to the finals of the O.V.C. Tournament in Louisville after soundly trouncing Middle Tennessee 95-69, and brought home their fourth runners-up trophy in the six year history of the tournament to add to the two championship trophies already in the case.

Attention everyone! Here come the majorettes. Say, what's this new marching routine? It's got that Southern Swing. What is it? . . . yeah, that's it—the Dixie Strut. These kids were great this year. Remember the flag swinging, twirling and dance routines? And those colorful little pinafores at the Morehead game were darling.

Yes, it was wonderful. Things just wouldn't have been complete without the majorettes and BEN.

HOCKEY TEAM

The women's hockey team played only two games this season, although others were scheduled and had to be canceled for various reasons. We were undefeated this year and stood the victors over the University of Kentucky and Berea College. This was the first time in five years that U.K. has been the under dog, but the second consecutive year we have defeated Berea.

The hockey season closed early in November.

The team is coached by Miss Martha Williams.

The Maroonettes had a very full basketball season this year. Eight games have been played and the record holds four wins and four losses; which we feel is very good, considering there are several new members on the team.

Along with other colleges in this vicinity, we were invited to the University of Kentucky for a sports-day during the season. While there we played one of our most thrilling games of the year in the Memorial Coliseum and this was a treat to everyone!

This has been one of the most fun-filled schedules yet and every member made a great contribution towards a fine team.

The Maroonettes are coached by Miss Martha Williams.

They gave them the spirit
To fite, fite, fite.

Can you imagine what a football or basketball game would be without the cheers and yells of the cheerleaders. The explosive spirit of the pepsters is absorbed by the entire student body and boomerangs to spur the Big E on to glorious victories.

Eastern's ROTC has been training young men for the Army since 1936, with exception only during World War II. The department has been housed in the Weaver Health Building for some time.

Three hundred and twenty students are enrolled in the department at present. They hold ranking from the Cadet Colonel to Private which is the classification of freshman students. Students are promoted from Privates to Private 1st class, Corporal, Sergeant, 2nd Lieutenant, 1st Lieutenant, Captain, Major, Lieutenant Colonel, and Cadet Colonel.

Promotion is based on very exact military science grades which are accumulated for three years, academic standing in general, rating at the six weeks summer camp at Fort Sill, Oklahoma and display of leadership in extra-curriculum activities.

The Military Ball which has been given annually for sixteen years is probably the most interesting ROTC activity for (student body). The Drill and Rifle teams which give shows and represent the college in various meets are also an important part of the corps.

A musically inclined family and a "Wall Streeter" who shared records with young "Tom" are two factors which influenced Mr. Stone to enter the field of music. Professor Stone has received degrees of Bachelor of Music with a major in violin and Master of Music with a major in composition. He attended Oberlin College and the Cincinnati School of Music. His major field of interest while at Florida State University will probably be Music Education of Music Theory.

'Interest Is Essential'

"An interest in the fine arts is almost essential to a well rounded personality as a medea of expression, if for no other reason," remarked Mr. Stone. He cited Winston Churchill and his painting and Albert Eeinstein and his violin as men who are great in fields foreign to music but who have a great interest in the aesthits.

"Even while in the armed services, dodging bombs nightly, the chaps who could play an instrument or sing were the most popular fellows. We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having been must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.
—WORDSWORTH.
